

Call for applications

In cooperation with the Sinfonieorchester Münster, the Orchestral Academy currently under development by the Münster University of Music at the WWU plans to award

10 Academy Scholarships for orchestral instruments
(all string instruments, trumpet, horn, flute, oboe, percussion) at the beginning of the winter semester 2021/22.

The Academy Scholarship is integrated in the four-semester master's degree programme "Music and Creativity" at the University of Music.

During the 2022 calendar year, the Academy Scholarship recipients will have the opportunity to perform up to 15 concerts per month with the Sinfonieorchester Münster, for which they will be paid a gross monthly salary of 665 euros. During months with no performances (October to December 2021 and January to September 2023), the scholarship holders will receive a basic scholarship of 300 euros per month.

Application for admission:

1. Apply for admission for a place in the master's degree programme "Music and Creativity" at the University of Music by 15 April 2021. You can complete and submit the application for admission via our online portal at: <https://www.uni-muenster.de/Musikhochschule.Bewerbung/>

Parallel to your application:

2. Send us an informal application stating your interest in an Academy Scholarship and include your CV listing your musical achievements by 15 April 2021. Please submit this application via email to the following address: studienbuero.mhs@uni-muenster.de

All applicants will participate in a two-part selection process:
